

Due to already existing statutory public access limitations and the confidentiality of DRS case records, the recent AOPC Public Access Policy has limited impact in the Berks County Domestic Relations Section (DRS). Please contact our DRS Docketing Division with any specific questions. The AOPC policy, forms and information on limited access to DRS records are available at the following link:

<http://www.pacourts.us/public-records/public-records-policies>