- If a voter cannot be found in the poll book, contact the Election Services office at 610-478-6490. The voter may be at the wrong polling place.
- Instruct voters on how to use the voting machine (outside of the curtain)
- Instruct voters how to cast a provisional ballot
- Assist voters in the completion of forms if requested by the voter (for example: Affirmation of Elector, complaint forms, or challenges)

The Election Services office should be made aware of any instances of intimidation, harassment, or discrimination toward voters from an election official, political party watchers, voter protection groups, other voters and any other group or individual present.

Interpreter Training and Resources

About three months before the Election you will receive a reminder letter with the dates and times available for the upcoming election training classes. The communication will continue until Election Day to ensure all necessary arrangements are met, and your availability status has not changed.

At times, changes occur in our election process. Interpreters can improve their understanding by attending the training class and reviewing the election manual provided at training class.

For questions, concerns or for information on how to become an election interpreter contact Election Services at 610-478-6490.
