

County of Berks Department of Emergency Services

DirectLink Technology Center ♦ 2561 Bernville Road ♦ Reading, PA 19605

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 10, 2011, 2100 hours

CONTACT: Christian Leinbach
610-478-6136 x6127

Public Meeting #1

BERKS COUNTY, PA – The Berks County Board of Commissioners will be coordinating a meeting of public agencies and private partners to permit Berks County residents impacted by the recent flooding to have a one-stop location to receive information about recovery efforts on-going in Berks County. Additionally, information will be provided to assist individuals to ensure that they are hiring reputable firms to assist them with their recovery efforts. The Commissioners would like to encourage any Berks County resident whose home or business sustained flooding to come to the Berks County Agricultural Center Auditorium at 6:30 PM on Monday September 12, 2011. The Agricultural Center is located at 1238 County Welfare Road, Bern Township. This is near the Berks County Jail and Berks Heim.

There will be very brief presentations by participants, and then an opportunity for questions and answers.

Intended presenters include:

- County of Berks Department of Emergency Services
- Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency
- Federal Emergency Management Agency
- Certified Restoration Contractors
- Insurance Professionals

###

"To Assess, To Assist, To Advise"