Internal Auditor's Report

Magisterial District Judge Alvin B. Robinson
Magisterial District Court 23-1-05
414 Blair Avenue
Reading, PA 19601

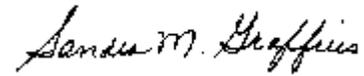

We have compiled the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balance – cash basis as of December 31, 2010 for Magisterial District Court 23-1-05, and the related statement of receipts, disbursements and changes in cash balance – cash basis for the year then ended. We have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

Our responsibility is to conduct the compilations in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

As described in Note 1, the accounts of Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 are maintained, and the accompanying financial statements are prepared, on the cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

We have included a report on our consideration of Magisterial District Court 23-1-05's internal control structure and on its compliance with laws and regulations. We have reviewed compliance and internal control matters in accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Third Class County Code and County of Berks ordinances and resolutions and have included applicable comments related thereto in the respective report.

Note 1: Nature of the office and significant accounting policies

Nature of the office:

Magisterial district courts have jurisdiction over the preliminary stages of all criminal cases. They have jurisdiction over all traffic and non-traffic summary cases and jurisdiction in civil cases where the amount in controversy is $8,000 or less. They do not have jurisdiction over matters pertaining to real estate, except landlord and tenant matters. Magisterial district courts collect fines, costs, restitution, and bail from defendants. The funds are then distributed to the Commonwealth, the County of Berks, local authorities, constables, and victims of illegal activities. Magisterial district courts are component units of Pennsylvania's Unified Judicial System.

Magisterial district courts are presided over by magisterial district judges. Appeals from magisterial district judge judgments are taken to the Court of Common Pleas.

Magisterial district judges are employees of the Commonwealth and the court secretaries are employees of the County of Berks.

Basis of accounting:

The books and records of Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 are maintained on the cash basis of accounting and, therefore, the financial statements presented herein do not purport to present the account balances and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. The cash basis of accounting is an other comprehensive basis of accounting.

Cash and cash equivalents:

Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 considers cash and equivalents to be cash on hand, on deposit and investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased.

Cash accounts:

The financial statements compiled for Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 by the Office of the Controller reflect only cash account activity. The cash account is primarily a trust and agency account maintained and reconciled by Magisterial District Court 23-1-05. Administrative costs and expenses incurred by Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 are reflected on the books and records of the County of Berks and not on these financial statements.

Note 2: Cash and equivalents

The following cash accounts are in the name of Magisterial District Court 23-1-05, County of Berks, and are not reflected in the County of Berks financial statements:

Bank	Account Type	Bank Balance	Carrying Value
M & T Bank	checking	$ 43,197	$ 39,585
Cash	cash on hand	150	150
		$ 43,347	$ 39,735

Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 is a component unit of Pennsylvania's Unified Judicial System. The cash account for Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 is assigned its own tax identification number.

The account holds funds received by Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 primarily in a trust and agency capacity and use of these funds by Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 is restricted.

Amounts on deposit do not exceed $250,000 and therefore are fully covered by FDIC insurance.

Note 3: Due to County of Berks

The amount due to the County of Berks is for collection of certain fines and costs related to violations of law within the County.

Note 4: Due to local authorities

The amount due to local authorities is for collection of certain fines and costs shared with local jurisdictions. The amount is related to violations of law that occurred within the local jurisdictions.

Note 5: Escrow accounts

Escrow accounts are comprised of the following:

Collateral	$ 12,637
Bail	600
Server fees	1,607
Escheats	411
	$ 15,255

Collateral includes amounts paid by defendants that will be applied against fines, costs, bail and restitution when the amounts are determined by the court. Bail is the security or guarantee required and given for the release of a person, conditioned upon a written undertaking, in the form of a bail bond that the person will appear in court. Server fees are to be paid to constables for serving complaints, summons or notices, executing warrants, attendance at arraignments or hearings, providing courtroom security, and other services. Escheats represent amounts from stale checks and/or unidentified remits to be turned over to the County of Berks for escheatment to the Commonwealth.

Internal Auditor's Report on Compliance and Internal Controls

Magisterial District Judge Alvin B. Robinson
Magisterial District Court 23-1-05
414 Blair Avenue
Reading, PA 19601

In completing our internal audit of the Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 for the year ended December 31, 2010, we performed tests for compliance with certain financial provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, grants, and applicable policies. Noncompliance is considered a significant finding when it could have a direct and material effect on related financial information. The results of our tests disclosed the following instances of noncompliance.

- Noncompliance with Administrative Order Concerning Warrant Procedures – The Court of Common Pleas of Berks County on March 14, 2007

We also performed tests of Magisterial District Court 23-1-05's internal control over financial information and noted no significant findings in internal controls. Significant findings involve matters coming to our attention relating to deficiencies in the design or operation of the internal control over financial information that, in our judgment, could adversely affect Magisterial District Court 23-1-05's ability to adequately and properly record, process, summarize and report financial data

This report is intended for the information and use of the County of Berks Board of Commissioners and Magisterial District Court 23-1-05's management. However, this report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited.

Report on Internal Controls as of April 26, 2011
Schedule of Findings and Responses

Significant Deficiencies and Auditee's Response

1. Backlog of unserved warrants subject to recall

During our review of the timeliness of recalling warrants, we noted that Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 was not current in performing this duty. The court monitors unserved warrants as time permits. At the time of the audit, there were 3,294 outstanding warrants with an issue date aged beyond 60 days. As a result, the court is not in compliance with the Magisterial District Judge System manual and the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Administrative Order Concerning Warrant Procedures dated March 14, 2007.

Note: Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 has made significant progress in reducing outstanding warrants aged > 60 days. The following since the 2006 Audit:

# of Warrants	As of Date
5,822	9/12/07
4,947	8/12/08
4,485	8/25/09
4,429	8/23/10
3,294	4/11/11

The Magisterial District Judge System manual states:

“For summary traffic and non-traffic cases, outstanding warrants should be returned to the Magisterial District Judge office within 60 days of issuance.”

The Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Administrative Order Concerning Warrant Procedures dated March 14, 2007 states:

“Where the ordinary means of service of a warrant in a misdemeanor or felony case have failed after sixty (60) days, the Magisterial District Judge shall recall the warrant (REIS) and the server shall immediately return the warrant.”

We recommend Magisterial District Court 23-1-05 staff review warrant control reports and notify servers to return warrants where the ordinary means of service has failed after 60 days. Returned warrants can either be recorded in the Magisterial District Judge System (MDJS) as unserved, if the defendant is unable to be located; or they can be recalled for reissue, if the server has not exhausted all means of finding the defendant.

Auditee's Response:

As time permits this court will work with the outstanding warrants.
