They have jurisdiction over all traffic and non-traffic summary cases and jurisdiction in civil cases where the amount in controversy is $8,000 or less. They do not have jurisdiction over matters pertaining to real estate, except landlord and tenant matters. Magisterial district courts collect fines, costs, restitution, and bail from defendants. The funds are then distributed to the Commonwealth, the County of Berks, local authorities, constables, and victims of illegal activities. Magisterial district courts are component units of Pennsylvania's Unified Judicial System.

Magisterial district courts are presided over by magisterial district judges. Appeals from magisterial district judge judgments are taken to the Court of Common Pleas.

Independent Internal Auditor's Report on Internal Controls and Compliance

Timothy M. Dougherty
Magisterial District Judge
Magisterial District Court 23-2-02
County of Berks, Pennsylvania

In completing our internal audit of the Magisterial District Court 23-2-02 for the year ended December 31, 2010, we performed tests for compliance with certain financial provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, grants, and applicable policies. Noncompliance is considered a significant finding when it could have a direct and material effect on related financial information. The results of our tests disclosed the following instance of noncompliance.

- Noncompliance with Magisterial District Judge System Manual
- Noncompliance with Court Order Concerning Magisterial District Judge Office Procedures – The Court of Common Pleas of Berks County on November 21, 1994
- Noncompliance with Administrative Order Concerning Warrant Procedures – The Court of Common Pleas of Berks County on March 14, 2007

We also performed tests of Magisterial District Court 23-2-02's internal control over financial information and noted no significant findings in internal controls. Significant findings involve matters coming to our attention relating to deficiencies in the design or operation of the internal control over financial information that, in our judgment, could adversely affect Magisterial District Court 23-2-02's ability to adequately and properly record, process, summarize and report financial data.

This report is intended for the information and use of the County of Berks Board of Commissioners and Magisterial District Court 23-2-02's management. However, this report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited.

Schedule of Findings and Responses

Significant Deficiencies and Auditee's Response

Untimely deposit of receipts

We tested to determine timely depositing of cash and check receipts in the bank. We found that receipts for 60 days in audit year 2010 were deposited two business days after the date of collection, receipts for 15 days in audit year 2010 were deposited three business days after the date of collection and receipts for 6 days in audit year 2010 were deposited four to five business days after the date of collection.

As a result, there was lack of compliance with the Magisterial District Judge System Manual and the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Court Order Concerning Magisterial District Judge Office Procedures dated November 21, 1994, and an increased risk of misappropriation.

Internal accounting controls require that all moneys collected be deposited in the bank at the end of every day. The Magisterial District Judge System Manual established the uniform internal control structure policies and procedures for all district courts. The daily cash balancing section of the manual states:

"All money, including partial payments received by the Magisterial District Judge office (e.g. cash, checks, and money orders), must be deposited in the bank at the end of every business day. A bank night depository may be used by all (night) courts as well as by any court that cannot get to the bank during banking hours. Money should not be taken home, left in the office overnight or unattended. The Daily Cash Balancing procedures must be completed every day."

The Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Court Order Concerning Magisterial District Judge Office Procedures dated November 21, 1994 states:

"All cash, checks and money orders received in the magisterial district court office must be deposited in the appropriate checking account at the end of every day. Monies shall not be left in the office overnight."

We recommend Magisterial District Court 23-2-02:

- Consistently deposit cash and check receipts in the bank on a daily basis in a manner consistent with the Magisterial District Judge System Manual.
- Document and retain an explanation with any deposit that is not made at the end of the business day.

Backlog of unserved warrants subject to recall

During our review of the timeliness of recalling warrants, we noted that Magisterial District Court 23-2-02 was not current in performing this duty. At the time of the audit, there were 2,508 outstanding warrants with an issue date aged beyond 60 days. As a result, the court is not in compliance with the Magisterial District Judge System Manual and the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Administrative Order Concerning Warrant Procedures dated March 14, 2007.

The Magisterial District Judge System Manual states:

“For summary traffic and non-traffic cases, outstanding warrants should be returned to the Magisterial District Judge office within 60 days of issuance.”

The Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Administrative Order Concerning Warrant Procedures dated March 14, 2007 states:

“Where the ordinary means of service of a warrant in a misdemeanor or felony case have failed after sixty (60) days, the Magisterial District Judge shall recall the warrant (REIS) and the server shall immediately return the warrant.”

We recommend Magisterial District Court 23-2-02 staff review warrant control reports and notify servers to return warrants where the ordinary means of service has failed after 60 days. Returned warrants can either be recorded in the Magisterial District Judge System (MDJS) as unserved, if the defendant is unable to be located; or they can be recalled for reissue, if the server has not exhausted all means of finding the defendant.

Auditee’s Response:

No response provided.
