About TextBehind®

TextBehind® is a communication service designed to connect families, children and friends with their incarcerated loved ones using our easy to use website and the FREE mobile app.

Writing letters by hand, printing and sending photos; and then going to the post office takes just too much effort and time.

TextBehind® brings your incarcerated loved ones back into your everyday life by making communication more convenient, consistent and affordable.

Consistent communication with family, children and friends during incarceration has shown a decrease in recidivism due to strengthening of family bonds and support for the incarcerated loved ones.

TextBehind® service makes it easy as 1 2 3 for you to create a FREE account, add your incarcerated loved one as a contact and to begin communicating more consistently and affordably.

To GET STARTED, please visit www.TextBehind.com or download the FREE mobile app "TextBehind" for your smartphone.
