

You don't need a ticket. Just climb aboard and take a trip back in time.

MERTZTOWN TRAIN STATION

Mertztown, Pa.

1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

SUNDAY,
August

2

2020

Pre-Restoration Open House

Free-will event. Open to the public.

Rain or shine

On the property of
Atlas Minerals and Chemicals
(use Chestnut Street entrance)

ADMIT ONE

Presented by: Longswamp Township Historical Society

Inside the station (on the property of Atlas Mining & Chemicals)
Entrance located at 337 Chestnut Street, Mertztown

- An unobstructed view of the largely original station interior.
- A display of tools once used by Mertztown station workers.

Inside the Christian Congregation Church fellowship hall
323 Church Street, Mertztown (corner of Chestnut Street and Valley Road)

- View a display of architectural drawings and station artifacts.
- Multiple publications available for purchase.

Face coverings will be required inside buildings.
Building occupancy maximums will be enforced.

Plenty of parking:

- Atlas Minerals and Chemicals complex (Chestnut Street entrance)
- Christian Congregation Church parking lots
- Overflow parking: Empty lot at the corner of at the corner of Valley Road and Chestnut Street

THIS EVENT WILL BE CANCELLED IF COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS REVERT TO "YELLOW" OR "RED."

EVENT SPONSORS

