

An informal meeting of the Borough Council of the Borough of Sinking Spring was held on Wednesday, January 10 at 7:00 p.m., at the Sinking Spring Borough Hall. No official roll call was taken. Mr. Schmidt, Mr. Zerr, Mr. Light, and Mr. Butkus were in attendance. Absent were Mrs. Kutz, Mr. Leiby and Mr. Wenrich.

Other officials present were: Mayor Clarence Noecker; Michael Hart, Public Works Director; and Elizabeth White, Administrative Assistant; who recorded the minutes of the proceedings.

Others present were: Robert Ludgate, Jr., Ludgate Engineering, and Robert Ludgate, Sr., Ludgate Engineering

Mr. Ludgate, Jr. and Mr. Ludgate, Sr. presented to Council a plan on revitalizing Penn Avenue. They had many ideas for the area and spoke for about an hour. In addition, they answered questions from Council. Please see attached document for further descriptions.

The residents from Maria and Diane Avenues started arriving for the 8:00 p.m. meeting about the Enviroscan findings. Council asked the residents to look at what Ludgate Engineering drew up. They were very receptive to the ideas presented.

At 8:05 p.m. the discussion began with the residents of Maria and Diane. The following are a list of residents that attended the meeting:

Jim Walker – 724 Maria Avenue
Kerry Harner – 714 Maria Avenue
Ms. Walsh – 720 Maria Avenue
Mr. McDevitt – 711 Maria Avenue
Mr. Moyer – 718 Maria Avenue
Mrs. Gile – 706 Maria Avenue
Resident – 707 Maria Avenue
Mr. Marks – 722 Maria Avenue
Lori Hudson – 707 Maria Avenue
Resident – 715 Maria Avenue
Mrs. Walker – 724 Maria Avenue
Resident – 708 Maria Avenue

Mr. Ludgate explained the findings of Enviroscan and answered their questions.

Respectfully submitted,

---
